SETH WILLIAMS BACK ON THE BALLOT Commonwealth Court Overturns Tereshko's Ruling

PHILADELPHIA: Today, a Commonwealth Court panel restored Seth Williams' position on the May 2009 primary ballot when they overturned Judge Allan Tereshko's incorrect ruling that had removed Seth. The following is a statement from Seth on the Commonwealth Court's ruling.

"I am enormously pleased that the Commonwealth Court saw the error of Judge Tereshko's original ruling and quickly overturned him.

Now, it is important for me and everyone else who wants to fix Philadelphia's broken criminal justice system to focus on solutions and not political 'gotcha' games.

There are hundreds of people dying in Philadelphia's streets every year and thousands more who are shot. Our criminal justice system is broken and it will not be fixed by political judicial decisions like Judge Tereshko's.

It is time for a new day – and a new D.A."
