

SETH WILLIAMS: THE CLEAR FRONT-RUNNER

In a recent poll conducted on behalf of Young Philly Politics by Research 2000, Seth Williams was the clear front runner for District Attorney of Philadelphia, leading among both sexes, every age and racial group.

“If the 2009 Democratic Primary for District Attorney were held today, which of the following would you vote for? (ROTATED):

	ALL	MEN	WOMEN
Seth Williams	31%	33%	30%
Daniel McElhatton	12%	13%	12%
Daniel McCaffery	11%	9%	12%
Leon Tucker	5%	6%	4%
Michael Turner	2%	2%	2%
Brian Grady	1%	1%	1%
Undecided	38%	36%	39%

	ALL	WHITE	BLACK	OTHER
Seth Williams	31%	27%	34%	33%
Daniel McElhatton	12%	16%	9%	10%
Daniel McCaffery	11%	14%	9%	10%
Leon Tucker	5%	9%	1%	1%
Michael Turner	2%	2%	2%	1%
Brian Grady	1%	1%	1%	1%
Undecided	38%	31%	44%	44%

	ALL	18-29	30-44	45-59	60+
Seth Williams	31%	29%	30%	32%	32%
Daniel McElhatton	12%	9%	10%	14%	15%
Daniel McCaffery	11%	13%	15%	9%	7%
Leon Tucker	5%	1%	3%	6%	10%
Michael Turner	2%	2%	2%	2%	1%
Brian Grady	1%	1%	1%	1%	-
Undecided	38%	45%	39%	36%	35%

The Research 2000 City of Philadelphia Poll was conducted from November 24 through November 26, 2008. 500 registered Democrats were surveyed. The margin of error is plus or minus 4.5%.