MUNICIPAL WORKERS' UNION ENDORSES
SETH WILLIAMS FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY
DC 33 Members Cite Seth's Experience

PHILADELPHIA: Philadelphia's municipal workers' union, AFSCME District Council 33 (DC 33), has announced its support of Seth Williams for Philadelphia District Attorney. DC 33's members cited Seth's extensive experience and commitment to reform. DC 33's support is the latest in a string of endorsements Seth has received as his campaign picks up momentum in the final month of the campaign.

"Seth Williams is the only candidate for District Attorney who has the experience and perspective to effectively run the District Attorney's Office," said Herman J. Matthews, president of DC 33. "Seth's decade of service as an Assistant District Attorney and his detailed plans for making every neighborhood safer made him the clear choice for our members."

AFSCME (American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees) is the largest public service union in Pennsylvania, and its Philadelphia chapter, District Council 33, represents Philadelphia's municipal workforce. DC 33 represents 15 separate locals throughout the city.

"I am honored to have the support of DC 33," Seth said. "Their members work hard to make sure our city runs smoothly, and I look forward to working with these dedicated men and women to make Philadelphia a better place to live, work and raise our families."

AFSCME District Council 33 is the latest organization to join Seth's growing list of supporters, which includes more than a dozen former Assistant District Attorneys, 12 state elected officials, the Fraternal Order of Police Philadelphia Housing Authority, the Transportation Workers Union Local 234, the Guardian Civic League, the Black Clergy of Philadelphia and the Vicinity, the Pentecostal PAC and the Fraternal Order of Police Lodge #5.

Seth Williams, the City's former Inspector General, has 10 years of experience as a top prosecutor and supervisor in Philadelphia's District Attorney's Office. For more information, please visit his campaign Web site at www.votesethwilliams.com.
