DREXEL DEMOCRATS ENDORSE SETH WILLIAMS

PHILADELPHIA: Drexel University Democrats have announced their endorsement of Seth Williams' District Attorney candidacy. The group, which voted to endorse Seth Sunday evening, cited his experience as an Assistant District Attorney and pledge to reform how the District Attorney's office works with the police and court system to improve safety in every neighborhood.

"As students, we are focused not only on how Philadelphia operates today, but what the city will be like in 5 and 10 years," said Giancarlo Stefanoni, president of the Drexel Democrats. "We believe Seth not only has the experience, he has the vision to make Philadelphia a safer place to live and work. That's why we are supporting him."

The Drexel Democrats formally endorsed Seth less than a week after Seth won the backing of the University of Pennsylvania Democrats. Last week, Seth and three of the other candidates for District Attorney participated in a candidates' forum co-sponsored by the Drexel Dems and the Penn Dems.

"I am honored to have the support of the Drexel Dems," Seth said. "I believe that with their help and support, I will be able to not only build the campaign field operation I will need on election day, but begin to make the change we as a City need to make every neighborhood safer."

The Drexel Democrats endorsement is the latest in Seth's growing list of supporters, which includes more than a dozen former Assistant District Attorneys and 11 state elected officials.

Seth Williams, the City's former Inspector General, has 10 years of experience as a top prosecutor and supervisor in Philadelphia's District Attorney's Office. For more information, please visit his campaign website at www.votesethwilliams.com.
