DISTRICT ATTORNEY

1500 Sansom Street, 4th Floor | Philadelphia, PA 19102 | 1-888-Seth4DA

April 7, 2009

It's often said that sensible people can differ in good faith, but we have yet to find anyone not connected to Dan McCaffery's campaign that thinks Judge Tereshko's decision to knock Seth off the ballot was correct – or even makes much sense.

Yesterday and today, several newspapers took a hard look at Judge Tereshko's ruling and, to put it charitably, found it wanting.

“A judge's ruling that knocked Seth Williams off the ballot for Philadelphia District Attorney flies against the spirit of election law and common sense.”

“Flimsy Justice”, Philadelphia Inquirer, April 6, 2009

“What a spectacle – Seth Williams seeking to head the D.A.'s Office to restore even-handed justice finding himself smacked back by wrongly applied law...Pennsylvania appellate courts must quickly reverse Tereshko's ruling and restore Williams to the ballot. Let the ballot box – not back room dealing – determine who should become Philly's D.A.!”

“Court Ruling Oozes Slime Onto Campaign Trail”, Philadelphia Tribune, April 7, 2009

Tomorrow, Seth is having his appeal heard in Commonwealth Court. We are hopeful that those judges will look at the facts and the law, not who is supporting our opponent. We'll let you know as soon as we know what the Court decides.

Seth's campaign has had a good few weeks, with supporters across the City energized by the Judge's wrong decision. Seth has won the backing of the Black Clergy of Philadelphia and Vicinity and Philly for Change, and tonight, a group of Latino leaders is endorsing Seth at an event at Cobre Restaurant & Bar at 5:30 pm.

But for us to keep up this momentum, we need your help.

Please consider volunteering or making a donation to Seth's campaign today. If we are going to be the change Philadelphia needs, we need your help now.
