DISTRICT ATTORNEY

1500 Sansom Street, 4th Floor | Philadelphia, PA 19102 | 1-888-Seth4DA

April 23, 2009

The “clear heavyweight in this race. [Williams is] the guy to beat.”

“Williams is the person to beat.”

That’s what independent experts are saying about Seth’s campaign for District Attorney with just over three weeks remaining before the May 19th primary.

But it’s not just independent experts that recognize Seth’s growing momentum. The other candidates in the race do, too. That’s why, as The Philadelphia Inquirer reported today, at last night’s debate the other “Democratic candidates for Philadelphia District Attorney trained fire on front-runner Seth Williams.” In fact, when given the opportunity to question each other, each and every one of them turned their aim on Seth. As the saying goes, in campaigns, you don’t shoot at people behind you.

In recent weeks, Seth has added to his growing list of supporters from across the City. This week alone, Seth added ACORN, the Pentecostal PAC and DC 33, the largest municipal workers’ union in Pennsylvania. Those endorsements are on top of the recent support Seth has picked up from groups like the Fraternal Order of Police, the Black Clergy, Liberty City and Philly for Change.

But to translate this momentum into victory on Election Day, we need your help. To help, you can:

Volunteer! Seth is a believer in grassroots campaign and direct voter contact. But to get his message out, we need help. Even if you only have a few hours to donate to make Philadelphia safer, it can make a difference.

Make a contribution! With the other candidates focused on knocking Seth down, we will need enough money to fight back and bring our message to the voters.

Seth is doing well, and we have just over three weeks to go – but we need your help!

Thank you again for your continued support!
