DISTRICT ATTORNEY

1500 Sansom Street, 4th Floor | Philadelphia, PA 19102 | 1-888-Seth4DA

March 10, 2009

Today I took a huge step toward becoming Philadelphia's next District Attorney. Thanks to the hard work of my dedicated volunteers, I submitted more than 10,000 signatures, representing every ward in the city. Though I only needed 1,000 signatures to be placed on May's ballot, my supporters exceeded my expectations, and I couldn't be more grateful.

This huge show of support from voters proves that my plans for Philadelphia's future resonate with so many of you. It shows me that my campaigning is paying off, and I want to thank each and every one of you who signed or circulated my petitions.

But there is little time for rest as our real work is just beginning. With less than 70 days until the primary, we need to spend every moment talking to Philadelphians about why this election matters, and how together we can make our city a safer place to live, work and raise our families.

We have the message.

We have the manpower.

We just need the money.

We need to have the resources to talk to voters at transit stops, at supermarkets, on the radio and on TV. We need to have the resources to respond to our opponents' scurrilous attacks meant to distract voters from the real issues in this campaign. Finally, we need to have the resources to get our 10,000 petition signers, their neighbors, their families and their friends to the polls on Election Day.

Please help us keep up the momentum and join the thousands of Philadelphians who are ready for "A New Day and a New D.A."

Sincerely,

Seth Williams
