TRANSIT WORKERS ENDORSE SETH WILLIAMS FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

Williams Details Plans to Focus on Most Dangerous Offenders

PHILADELPHIA: Philadelphia Transit Workers have announced their support of Seth Williams for Philadelphia District Attorney. Union members cited Seth's extensive experience and commitment to community.

"Seth Williams is the only candidate for District Attorney who has the experience and perspective to understand the challenges Philadelphia faces," said Willie Brown, president of TWU Local 234. "Seth's decade of service as an Assistant District Attorney and his groundbreaking work as Inspector General have equipped him with the tools to make our members and the neighborhoods they work and live in safer."

The Transit Workers Union Local 234 represents more than 6,000 bus, subway, train and trolley workers in Philadelphia. TWU Local 234's support comes on the heels of Williams' first law enforcement endorsement from the Fraternal Order of Housing Police.

"I am honored to have the support of TWU," Williams said. "TWU members carry us daily from our home to work and back again safely, sometimes placing themselves in dangerous neighborhoods and situations. The members of TWU literally make the trains run on time, and I am proud to have them behind me."

Williams also detailed his plan to focus the District Attorney's resources on prosecuting the most dangerous offenders. Williams' approach to violent repeat criminals will move the prosecution's focus from the crime to the criminal, surveying an offender's overall criminal record rather than the present offense. "Focus on the Most Dangerous Offenders" is the third of ten major steps Williams will take to tackle crime in Philadelphia.

Seth Williams, the City's former Inspector General, has 10 years of experience as a top prosecutor and supervisor in Philadelphia's District Attorney's Office. For more information, please visit his campaign Web site at www.votesethwilliams.com.
