The School Police Association of Philadelphia enthusiastically endorses Democratic Nominee for District Attorney Seth Williams

Philadelphia---Members of the School Police Association of Philadelphia are throwing their full support behind Democratic Nominee for District Attorney Seth Williams. The SPAP believes Mr. Williams experience as an Assistant District Attorney, service as Inspector General, and life long devotion to the city as a native Philadelphian makes him the only choice for the job.

“Seth Williams is the person we can trust to not only address the numerous problems the city of Philadelphia is facing right now,” says Michael Lodise president of the School Police Association,” but also find real long lasting solutions. Mr. Williams’ pledge to bring down the absurdly high percentage of truancy in the city and form a real bond between the DA’s office and the school district are just some of the innovative ways he will make the city a safer place to live.”

The long list of endorsements for Seth’s campaign continues got grow even longer. Along with the School Police Association of Philadelphia, the FOP, and the Philadelphia Council AFL-CIO also endorsed Mr. Williams. Since he announced his candidacy last year, Seth has picked up backing from numerous agencies and elected officials including the Philadelphia Inquirer, the Tribune, Philly for Change, Neighborhood Networks, Liberty City, and the Guardian Civic League.
